

Venkat, H. (2021). Practice-based research on mathematics teaching: A developmental turn? Nordic Studies in Mathematics Education, 26 (3-4), 191–206.

Hamsa Venkat

Hamsa Venkat holds the SA Numeracy Chair at the University of the Witwatersrand, now in its third 5-year phase. Her work is focused on linked research and development in primary mathematics, with an emphasis on developing and studying interventions with the potential to work at scale.